

THE HANCOCK COUNTY ADDICTION COALITION PRESENTS: ANDREW DEWEY ADDICTION AND RECOVERY

Tuesday, November 26, at 7:00 p.m. at The Legacy Theater, Carthage, IL. Doors open at 5:30 p.m. for those interested in viewing the Hidden in Plain Sight bedroom, must be 21 or older to enter.

Join Mr. Dewey as he takes us on his personal journey through addiction and recovery. Currently over seven years sober, he will share his passion for helping people heal from their experiences with addiction.

For more information about the Hancock County Addiction Coalition or the Hidden in Plain Sight display, contact HCAC by phone at 573-240-0404, or by email at help@hcacil.org. Visit online www.hcacil.org or on Facebook at <https://www.facebook.com/HCACSTEP>. Support for Mr. Dewey's presentation was made possible by West Central Illinois AHEC through a grant provided by HRSA.
